Next Weekend
December 2 & 3, 2023

“Bags of Hope” provides monogrammed duffle bags to children in foster care, filled with age-appropriate comfort items. Often time’s children in foster care store their personal belongings in a trash bag. It is the goal of Bags of Hope to replace these trash bags with duffle bags. Your purchase of an ornament for $25 will allow a child to receive one of these bags. (The ornament will have the name of a child for you to remember each Christmas.)

Please visit their website <bagsofhope.org>.

On that weekend, Maura Babbitt will be with us once again, at the back of the church selling ornaments for this very worthy cause. Thank you for your generosity!
