HERE'S TO ALL THE DADS...

- who paid for a dinner that no one was grateful for.
 - who didn't know if they'd make it to pay day.
 - who are trying their best to be a good man, in a society that devalues men.
 - who lost their patience multiple times a day because they see their life passing with their dreams still in their chest.
 - who never hear, "I'm proud of you." because those are important words to a man.
 - who work long hours, and leave all the days frustrations at the door to be there for his kids, cause that's what dads do.
 - who love so much even when they feel they're failing.
 - who shoulder the weight of the world for their family.
- You are doing a great job. I'm proud of you!
